CD-ROM PRODUCTS IN SELECTED MANITOBA LIBRARIES

A preliminary survey of CD-ROM products in Manitoba libraries was published in the February 1989 issue of the MLA Newsline. A 1994 survey of CD-ROMs in selected Manitoba libraries² was prompted by conversations with librarians and researchers in Winnipeg. This new edition lists library reference sources such as periodical indexes, directories, dictionaries, encyclopedias and statistical compilations as well as some full-text databases.

With this information on the variety and availability of CD-ROMs in Manitoba, MLA hopes to facilitate resource sharing, research, collection development and the development of instructional materials and methods.

The list is divided into three sections:

1. alphabetical list of participating libraries with CD-ROM holdings
2. alphabetical list of CD-ROM products with the library holding the CD indicated by a number
3. numbered list of participating libraries

In the first section, the ■ symbol denotes that there are some restrictions in accessing that library's CD-ROM products. This can vary from the need to make an appointment to a fee for outside users. Please contact these institutions for details.

As MLA plans to make this list available through the Blue Sky FreeNet of Manitoba, and to update it regularly, please use the tear-off form at the back of this brochure to report any changes and forward to:

Acknowledgement

On behalf of the Manitoba Library Association, I would like to thank Linda Dixon and Louise Sloane, reference librarians at The University of Winnipeg Library, who gathered the information found in this publication as well as Jane Barske, The University of Winnipeg Library, who did the keyboarding and formatting.

While a print publication date has not been established for the next edition, revised information will be uploaded regularly to the online version found on the Blue Sky FreeNet of Manitoba Inc.

The Manitoba Library Association hereby gives permission for anyone to photocopy/download this publication provided that it is for non-profit educational use and that the MLA be acknowledged.

² Surveys were mailed to most of the institutions listed in the Directory of Libraries in Manitoba, to institutional members of MLA, and to special and health libraries not included in either. Future editions of this list could include the holdings of school libraries and media centres.
